

JOB DESCRIPTION
Job Title	Geo-Environmental Technician
Key role objective	The principal functions of this position are to carry out environmental and geotechnical monitoring and sampling, as well as data management and reporting. WJ Groundwater offers an extensive training and development program which will commence after individuals complete their probationary period. Company induction, initial basic training & PPE issue will be provided from commencement of your employment. A suitable vehicle will also be provided.
Reports / Responsible to	Monitoring Engineer (Line Manager)
Key areas of responsibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attend site to obtain groundwater samples. • Operate sampling equipment. • Liaising with third parties to arrange site access. • Liaise with testing laboratories, to arrange testing of samples, delivery of consumables. • Manage data from laboratories. • Presentation and reporting of data within monthly and quarterly reports. • Other geotechnical monitoring requirements associated with our works. • Liaise with clients.
Qualifications & Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to use computer for email, MS Word and Excel. • A valid driving license, a vehicle will be provided. • Awareness of geotechnical sampling and testing. • Site experience useful, but not essential. • Excellent verbal and interpersonal skills and written communication skills. • Resourcefulness, initiative and the ability to work unsupervised. • Demonstrate problem solving skills and a practical mindset. A motivated and hardworking individual is essential for this position. The position requires the candidate to hold a full valid UK driving license.
Working Conditions	Working with WJ colleagues and our clients associated with groundwater monitoring in both outdoor & indoor environments. Site locations are from Aylesbury at the south section of the project and Royal Leamington Spa at the north section. The candidate would be required to travel to site locations between the two. Though flexibility to travel throughout the UK is beneficial.

Physical Requirements	The job role is physically demanding in that you will need to carry equipment and sampling containers over short distances often in outdoor environments in all weather conditions.
Approved by	Chris Robson	Signature
Date Approved	09/03/2021	Next Review	09/03/2022
Employee Signature		Print Name and Date

